COMPLAINT TO DETERMINE THE DISCHARGEABILITY OF DEBT AND FOR JUDGMENT

Plaintiff, through its attorney, Brad A. Mokri, of Law Offices of Mokri & Associates, states as follows:

PLAINTIFF'S COMPLAINT TO DETERMINE DISCHARGEABILITY OF DEBT

1. This is an adversary proceeding in bankruptcy brought by Heritage Pacific Financial, LLC. dba Heritage Pacific Financial pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 523.

Defendant filed a Chapter 7 bankruptcy petition on November 02, 2010.
 Jurisdiction is vested in this proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157, 28 U.S.C. §1334, and 11 U.S.C. § 523; this matter is a core proceeding.

4. Plaintiff is a creditor of defendant. Plaintiff is the assignee and current owner and/or holder of Defendant's loan and related mortgage note.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

- 5. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges that in an effort to obtain funds to purchase and/or refinance a property, Defendant completed, or caused to have completed on his behalf, a Uniform Residential Loan Application ("Loan Application"), otherwise known as a 1003 Form, which Defendant executed and signed. A true and correct copy of the Uniform Residential Loan Application is attached as Exhibit "A" and incorporated by reference herein.
- 6. Defendant obtained loans evidenced by promissory notes executed by Defendant. Plaintiff is the true and current owner and holder of Defendant's loan and related promissory note. A true and correct copy of the Note is attached as Exhibit "B" and incorporated by reference herein.
- Defendant certified the accuracy of the information contained in the Loan Application and expressly consented to the verification and re-verification of the information contained therein.
- 8. Among other information required to be certified, and in fact certified, by

  Defendant on the Loan Application, was information regarding Defendant's current employer, gross monthly income, and intent to use the property securing the loan as Defendant's primary residence.

- 9. Defendant knew that his then-current income was insufficient to obtain the loans, and in an effort to secure the more favorable primary-residence financing rate, Plaintiff is informed, believes and thereon alleges that Defendant provided, prepared, or caused to be prepared, a Loan Application which materially misstated Defendant's employment, income and/or intended use of the property as a primary residence; and caused Defendant's agent to submit to the lender a materially false Loan Application and other materially false documents related thereto.
- 10. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon alleges that Defendant directed, instructed, and caused to have his materially false Loan Application and supporting documentation transmitted to Defendant's lender knowing that the information in the Loan Application and supporting documentation was materially false.
- 11. The lender did not know, and had no reason to know, that the information and documentation provided by Defendant in and in conjunction with the Loan Application was false. In reliance on the information and documentation provided by Defendant, the lender approved Defendant's Loan Application.
- 12. Defendant executed a promissory note in favor of the lender, pursuant to which Defendant agreed and promised to repay the loan according to the terms of the promissory note. The proceeds of the loan, as stated in the promissory note, were to be used to purchase and/or refinance the property securing the promissory note.
- 13. The lender fully performed, including by disbursing the loan proceeds to Defendant. The lender and/or its assignees duly assigned Defendant's loan and promissory note to Plaintiff, who is currently the owner and holder of Defendant's loan and promissory note.
- 14. Defendant defaulted on his payment obligations and obligation to re-verify the information contained in the Loan Application despite the Plaintiff's request therefore.
- 15. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon alleges that in applying for the loan, the Defendant knowingly misstated her monthly income on his Loan Application and concealed his true income. Plaintiff is further informed and believes that the Defendant knowingly misstated the status of his employment on the Loan Application and concealed his true employment status.

Plaintiff is further informed and believes that Defendant misrepresented his residency such that the property securing the loan was not Defendant's primary residence, and concealed his true residency status.

- 16. The promissory note was duly assigned by the original lender and/or its assignees to Plaintiff, who is the current owner and/or holder of Defendant's Loan and related mortgage note.
- 17. Plaintiff is not barred from pursuing this action by any anti-deficiency statute or rule. Plaintiff does not seek a deficiency judgment for the balance of a promissory note following foreclosure, but rather seeks a judgment for Defendant's fraud in connection with their loan application, as alleged herein. Plaintiff has attempted to resolve this matter prior to filing this complaint by contacting Defendant.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

False Pretenses, False Representation or Actual Fraud

[11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(2)(A)]

- 18. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 17, above.
- 19. In an effort to obtain funds to purchase and/or refinance their property, Defendant completed, or caused to have completed on their behalf, a Uniform Residential Loan Application ("Loan Application"), otherwise known as a 1003 Form, which Defendant executed and signed. A true and correct copy of the Uniform Residential Loan Application is attached as Exhibit "A" and incorporated by reference herein. Defendant utilized this loan, creating a balance due and owing on this loan of $38,006.10 including interest as of the date the bankruptcy petitioner was filed.
- 20. Defendant obtained the money by false pretenses, a false representation and actual fraud by misrepresenting that the money obtained for the purpose of purchasing a property for his primary residence. Defendant misrepresented her intended use of the property as his primary residence as the property was being purchased for another individual.

- 21. The lender did not know, and had no reason to know, that defendant misrepresented his intended use of the property and in reliance on the information approved the loan.
- 22. At the time of obtaining the money from the lender execution of the loan, Defendant failed to disclose to Lender that he did not and would not use the property as his primary residence. Lender justifiably relied on Defendant's representation and paid money for the purchase of a primary residence.
- 23. By reason of the foregoing, Defendant obtained money from the lender through false pretenses, false representations and actual fraud. Defendant's actions constitute material misrepresentations of the facts. Defendant intended for the lender to rely on the misrepresentation.
- 24. Lender reasonably relied upon Defendant's misrepresentations and was induced to lend money to Defendant by those misrepresentations.
- 25. Within the three years prior to the filing of this Complaint, through its independent investigation and collection attempts, Plaintiff discovered that the representations made on Defendant's Loan Application were false.
- 26. As a result of Defendant's conduct, Plaintiff has suffered damages at a minimum in the amount of $38,006.10 plus interest and reasonable attorney fees. Pursuant to 11 USC § 523(a)(2)(A), Defendant should not be granted a discharge of this debt to the Plaintiff in the amount of $38,006.10 plus interest and reasonable attorney fees.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF

Use of False Statement in Writing

[11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(2)(B)]

- 27. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 25, above.
- 28. In an effort to obtain funds to purchase and/or refinance their property, Defendant completed, or caused to have completed on their behalf, a Uniform Residential Loan Application ("Loan Application"), otherwise known as a 1003 Form, which Defendant executed and signed.

A true and correct copy of the Uniform Residential Loan Application is attached as Exhibit "A" and incorporated by reference herein. Defendant utilized this loan, creating a balance due and owing on this loan of $38,006.10 including interest as of the date the bankruptcy petitioner was filed.

- 29. In an effort to obtain the funds, Defendant caused to have completed on his behalf, a Uniform Residential Loan Application, otherwise known as a 1003 Form, which Defendant executed and signed.
- 30. On the Uniform Residential Loan Application, Defendant certified the accuracy of the information contained therein including but not limited to financial condition of Defendant and consented to the verification and re-verification of the information contained therein.
- 31. Among the information provided and certified by Defendant in his Uniform Residential Loan Application, Defendant was required to certify information regarding his current employer, statements of his gross monthly income, and to certify that his intended to use the loan proceeds to purchase real property which Defendant intended to use as his primary residence.
- 32. In furtherance of his effort, because Defendant knew that his then current income was insufficient to support the approval of the loan and/or in an effort to secure the more favorable primary-residence financing rate, Plaintiff is informed, believes and thereon alleges that Defendant:
- a) Provided, prepared, caused to be prepared, false loan applications, which misstated his employment, income and/or intended use of the property as a primary residence;
- b). Certified a false loan application, which misstated his employment income and/or intended use of the property as a primary residence; and
- c). Caused his agents to submit to lenders a false loan application and other loan related documents
- 33. The lender did not know, and had no reason to know, that the information and documentation provided by Defendant in, and in conjunction with, his loan applications was

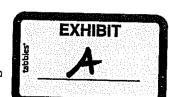

- 34. Defendant executed a promissory note in favor of his initial lender, its successors, transferees, and assigns. In the loan application Defendant expressly represented to the original lender and to its successor in interest the accuracy of the information.
- 35. The proceeds of the loan, as referenced in the promissory note, were to be used by Defendant in the purchase or refinance of the property described therein. In exchange, Defendant agreed and promised to pay according to the mutually agreed upon terms and conditions more particularly described in the promissory notes.
- 36. Lender fully performed, and Defendant acquired title to the property. The promissory note was duly assigned by the original lender and/or its assignees to Plaintiff, who is the current owner and/or holder of Defendant's Loan and related mortgage note.
- 37. Defendant has defaulted on his obligations to pay and to re-verify the information contained in the Uniform Residential Loan Application. Despite Plaintiff's attempts to secure information from Defendant to re-verify the information contained in his loan application, Defendant has failed and/or refused to comply with Plaintiff's requests.
- 38. Within the three years prior to the filing of this Complaint, through its independent investigation and collection attempts, Plaintiff discovered that the representations made on Defendant's Loan Application were false.
- 39. By reason of the foregoing, Defendant obtained money by using a statement in writing that falsely represented Defendant's financial condition on which the lender relied on. Defendant submitted the loan application with the intent to deceive the lender. Defendant, therefore, had a specific intent to defraud his lender.
- 40. Defendant's actions constitute material misrepresentations of the facts. Defendant intended for his ender to rely on those misrepresentations. Lender did rely upon Defendant's misrepresentations of repayment and was induced to lend money to Defendant by those misrepresentations. Lender reasonably relied on Defendant's misrepresentations.
